DEDICATION

The staff of the 1979 Yearbook would like to dedicate this volume to Mr. Donald Burke. For many years, his exceptional talent in his field and his enthusiasm have been an inspiration to Weston High School students, and we honor him with tremendous appreciation.

Mr. Burke's magnificent knowledge of Physics and his dedication to his students have earned him the respect of everyone at Weston High — students and faculty alike. The ability to make a usually difficult field manageable and interesting for students is a rare one, but one which he possesses.

Donald Burke's caring attitude, along with his refreshing candor, endear him to all he meets. His cheerfulness is a delight anytime, and his friendship is highly valued by all who know him. Mr. Burke's sincerity and perpetual good humor make him a favorite in the Weston High community.

Although we can never thank Donald Burke enough, we wish to let him know that we will be forever grateful for his considerate devotion.

IN MEMORIAM

AMY CLARE POTTER

March 21, 1961 — April 12, 1974

Someday as we are all quiet
the sun will stop
Shining and the world
Will stop. All that will be heard is music.

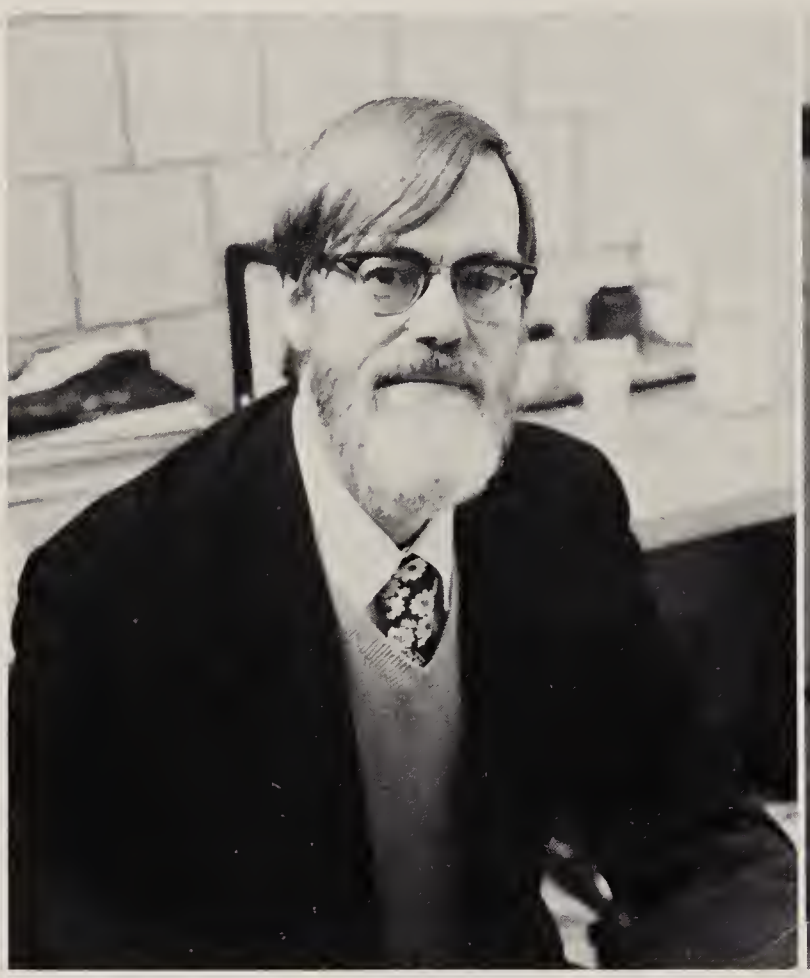
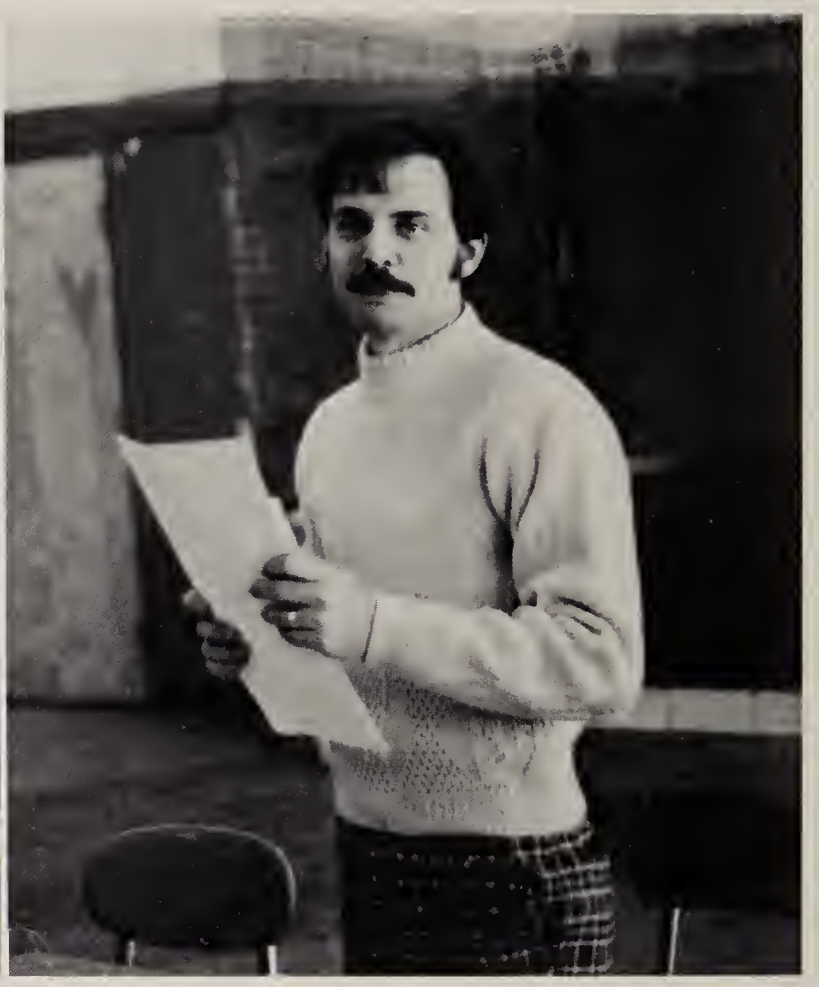
Mr. and Mrs. Potter, the class of 1979 would like to thank you for all the time and attention you have given us. The sincere care you have shown for us has helped us more than you can ever know, and we wish you the best of luck for the future.

A SPECIAL RECOGNITION





The class of 1979 wishes to thank you, Mr. Hatch and Mr. McCowan, for getting us through these four years at Weston High. It is not enough to say that we couldn't have done it alone — without your help, we would have been lost from day one! Somehow, you managed to stick by us through Freshman Orientation, Sophomore T-shirts, the Junior Prom, our Senior refreshment stands, and more, and keep yourselves alive at the same time! Had it not been for your steadfastness while we were having Serious Dilemmas, graduation would still be a far-off dream for us.

We praise you for your unselfish commitment of time and effort, and offer you our sincerest thanks.

The Road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errends meet.
And wither then? I cannot say.

Who scheme and run wild
Who speak with their wings
And the way that they smile

The answer they reveal
Life is unreal.

Sometimes
In this incredible odyssey
We know as life,
One is blessed
Or perhaps honored
To touch
Another's essence
And find, once again,
Something incomparably
Precious.

Each second
Each moment
Brims with its own particular potential
And awesome promise.

Out of such a moment
We have known one another
Briefly, intensely
and yet,
Not at all.

It is written, somewhere, that memory is an energy of the soul, and I shall remember your kindness to me.

All our knowledge brings us nearer to our ignorance. All our ignorance brings us nearer to death. But nearness to death no nearer to God. Where is the Life we have lost in living? RECOGNITION

For a long time, Walter Fields has been a teacher, coach, and friend to Weston High students. His sense of humor and positive attitude encourages those in his math classes to study, and makes learning an enjoyable and rewarding experience. His dedication as a baseball coach makes wins much more fun, and losses not so bad. The perseverance Mr. Fields shows both in and out of the classroom rubs off on those around him, teachers and students alike, and helps us all to keep trying, even in times of difficulty. Thank you, Walter Fields, for your inspiration and your enthusiasm — we of the class of 1979 will miss you.

RECOGNITION

From our first day of Freshman Study Halls through our four years of high school, Elda Woodbury has been always present, always helpful. As a parent of members of the classes of 1978 and 1979, as well as the Attendance Office aide, Mrs. Woodbury comes into close contact with students every day, always offering compassion and friendship. The diligent care she gives to her job doesn't detract from her concern for the students of Weston High, and for this we wish to thank Elda Woodbury.
